

Tackle & Gun News

Network19 have a long established background and understanding of the angling trade.
Our aim is to make the web easily accessible for retailers, wholesalers and angling associations throughout the Uk
( and some outside Uk too ! )

Network19 are committed to helping businesses in the fishing & shooting trades establish an effective online presence.
We exhibited at the T&G show in 2006 and 2007 and have already booked our stand for 2008.
Works under way for Sean O'Driscoll & his team at David Hall Publishing to develop a brand new T&G show website for exhibitors & visitors.

Recently completed was the Tackle and Guns magazine website.
